Lawrence High School

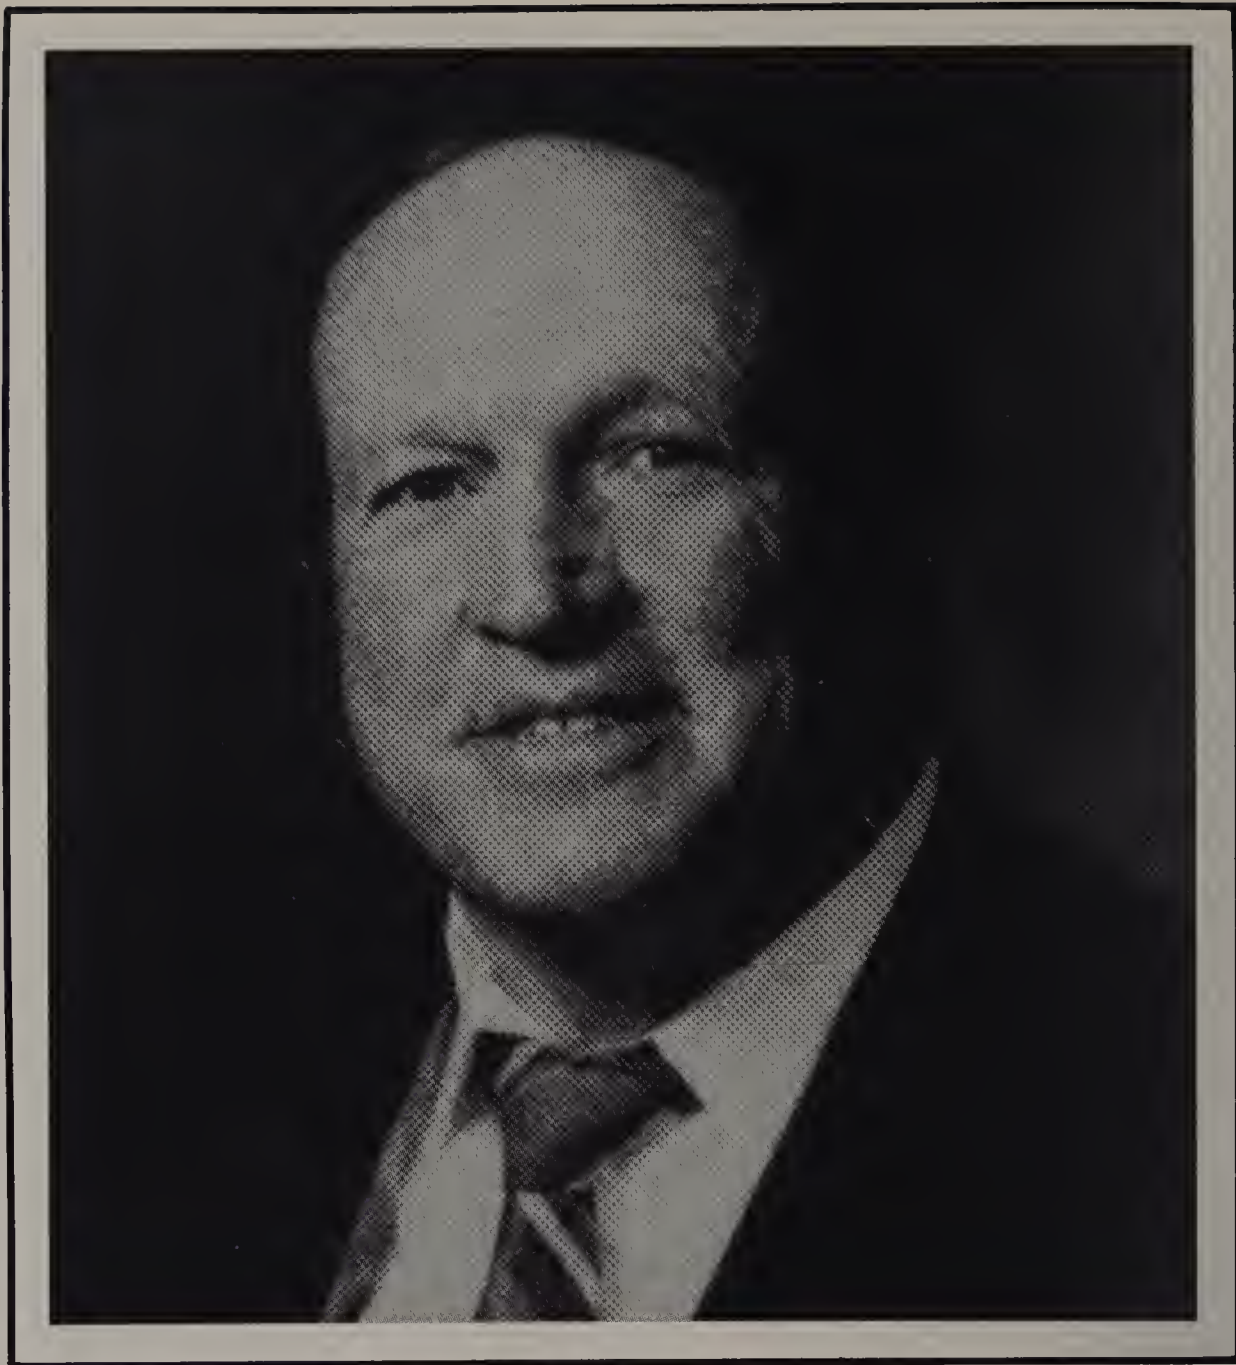

The class of "98" will stand forever

This one's for you, class of "98"

At Lawrence High School you hear no evil, speak no evil, and see no evil.

Robert P. Fitzgerald L.H.S. Class Of 1951

Bob Fitzgerald was an outstanding student athlete at Lawrence High School. He starred on the football, basketball, and baseball teams, and at the same time, maintained honor roll status as a student. He is a member of the L.H.S. Hall of Fame.

After his collegiate career at Northeastern University, where he was an all-star in football and wrestling, he returned to Lawrence High School as a teacher-coach. He taught for many years in the Social Studies Department. He coached football, basketball, baseball, and he started the wrestling program. Bob Fitzgerald had a passion for teaching kids matched by his love of Lawrence High School.

When remembering "Coach Fitz", hundreds of former students and players relate to the values instilled in everyone around him. Love of family and friends, honor, loyalty, integrity, and a competitive will to win were a constant in this gentle giant's daily life.

As we leave Lawrence High School to seek our own destinies, let us pause and remember Fitzzy's last words to his students before a test, or to his players before a game; "work hard and good luck".

Ancient rivalry almost over

Lawrence-Lowell first played in 1893, final battle is tomorrow

◆ One of Lawrence's greatest moments in this ancient rivalry came in 1985. Here, we recall that win — a late comeback in a blinding Thanksgiving Day snowstorm.

BILL BURT

LAWRENCE — They simply wanted to beat Lowell. Just like their fathers and uncles did five times in the late 1950s and early 1960s. Just the like their brothers did in 1980 and 1981.

The 1985 Lawrence High football team not only upset Lowell, 19-18, in a snowstorm, but they made a name for themselves. The game will forever be known as the "Wing and a prayer."

With 24 seconds remaining on the Lowell 9-yard line, senior quarterback Bobby Wing hit a wide open Bobby Farrington in the left corner of the endzone for a tying touchdown. Wing, who made only one extra point the entire season, calmly booted the ball through the uprights for the memorable victory.

That thrilling comeback will grow in Lawrence High football lore to another level if highly-favored Lowell beats Lawrence tomorrow. That 1985 win could stand as the final time Lawrence beat Lowell on Thanksgiving.

If anyone is wondering why Lawrence opted out of the

WHERE IS 1985 HERO?

Bob Wing, the hero of Lawrence's 1985 win over Lowell, is now a 30-year-old teacher in Palmdale, Calif., in the Mohave Desert, about 60 miles north of Los Angeles. He has three children, including 3-year-old twins. In 1985, he scored one touchdown, threw for another and kicked the game-winning extra point.

Lawrence quarterback Bobby Wing scampers away from a Lowell defender in the 1985 battle. Wing convinced coach Steve Perrochi he could kick the game-winning extra point and he did and Lawrence won, 19-18.

The Lawrence and Lowell football teams gathered one last time yesterday before their Thanksgiving matchup to bid adieu to one of the area's longest gridiron rivalries.

Lowell hosted a football banquet to commemorate the final time the two teams will meet on Thanksgiving Day. Both teams enjoyed a spaghetti dinner and a few stories from past clashes.

The long-lived Lawrence-Lowell Thanksgiving game began in 1913.

"There is no question I am sad," said Lawrence athletic director Carmen Iannucci. "We've been a little bit overmatched the last few years. It will be good for the kids, last night's occasion were both school's football and cheerleading squads, administrators and school committee members and the headmaster and principal of Lowell and Lawrence respectively.

New Lowell athletic director Walter Nelson headed the list last night's speakers and Lawrence head coach Larry Reusch. A Lowell coach Scott Boyle also provided some fond stories of game past.

"It's a sad event, but fortunate it is for the benefit of both schools," said Reusch, who graduated from Lawrence in 1964 and has been coaching the Lancers since 19
